Application for Admission Information

What you need to know before applying for admission

We recommend that you familiarise yourself with the details of the programme you are interested in BEFORE you apply for admission. Check that the programme and the courses offered by the relevant academic department will meet your academic objectives. Please view the relevant department/programme website for further information www.canterbury.ac.nz

Some programmes have specific application requirements and/or an additional application process. Please check the programmes that require special applications www.canterbury.ac.nz/admissions/lt_d_entry.shtml. Students wishing to enrol in a limited entry course should apply for admission by the specified deadline.

When to apply

Undergraduate Applications

Semester 1 (February start): 31st October

Semester 2 (July start): 31st March

Postgraduate Applications

At least 6 months before the intended start date.

PhD and master's research students may begin their studies at any time during the year with the approval of their supervisor.

You should apply as early as possible to give yourself maximum preparation time for visa application, fee payment, travel and accommodation arrangements. Late applications may be processed, but we cannot guarantee that a decision will be made in time for you to make the necessary arrangements to start your studies here.

What type of Admission should I apply for?

There are several different pathways to Admission at UC. Please see www.canterbury.ac.nz/admissions/ to find the one that is relevant to you.
